Sir

Referring to C C O No 1596-Ed^L 22 of the 21st June last, sanctioning the indent for books required for the Educational Dept from England, and directing that a bill for the charges incurred be submitted on receipt of the books for final adjustment, I have the honour to state that a remittance for the amount was obtained from the Bank of Madras as usual, on the 20th instant, and the bill as directed, amounting to Rs 4173 6 5

~~ustment~~ But a memo

~~ed~~ from the ~~A~~

of the Bank informs me that payment has been refused. On what grounds the Deputy Accountant General has thought proper to do this I am ignorant, but have written to inquire. Meanwhile I beg that orders may be passed for the immediate payment of the bill, the remittance obtained on account of it having gone to England two mails ago.
